Press release of the Government of Burundi
Dar es Salam, 6 July 2015

The Government of Burundi has always appreciated the efforts made by the international community to find solutions to the problems in Burundi. The Government thanks in particular the countries of the subregion which, at the recent Summit of Heads of State of the East African Community, held in Dar es Salam on 6 July 2015, designated Mr. Yoweri Museveni, President of Uganda, as the Facilitator in the resumed dialogue between the Burundian political partners. The Government welcomes this designation, and commends President Museveni who, in the past, had served successfully as Chairman of the Regional Initiative for the Burundi Peace Process.

The Government has taken note of the call made by the Heads of State of the East African Community issued at their Summit held in Tanzania to postpone the presidential election to 30 July 2015, to give the Facilitator time to establish the necessary contacts with the political partners with a view to laying the groundwork for their participation in the upcoming elections.

The Government of Burundi has already instructed the relevant technical services to implement the recommendation adopted at the Summit of Heads of State concerning the adjustment of the date of the presidential election, and to do so in full compliance with constitutional requirements, including deadlines which cannot be missed, pursuant to article 103, paragraph 2, of the Constitution, to avoid creating an institutional vacuum and the chaos that would result. The Government is convinced that the Facilitator will be sensitive to this concern.

The Government nonetheless denounces and condemns those who impugn and reject the conclusions of the Dar es Salam Summit, a pretext which they have always used to withdraw from the electoral process. The Government also denounces and condemns the perpetrators of the violent acts currently being committed to disrupt and scuttle the electoral process. These perpetrators are beginning to show up in public and claim responsibility for these attacks and terrorist acts. The Government will do its utmost to prevent them from carrying out these despicable acts, to arrest them and to bring them to justice.

Lastly, the Government calls on the people to remain as calm and as serene as they did during the parliamentary and municipal elections, while preparing to turn out in large numbers for the presidential election, to be held on a date to be announced shortly. The Government promises that security will be tightened.

Bujumbura, 9 July 2015

[Original: Arabic]

I have the honour to convey to you the wish of the Government of Iraq that the mandate of the United Nations Assistance Mission for Iraq (UNAMI) should be extended for a further period of one year through 31 July 2016, in accordance with the letter and spirit of the conditions set out in Security Council resolution 1770 (2007). The Government of Iraq would also like the Mission to continue to provide assistance and advice, upon the request of the Government.

The Government of Iraq reaffirms the importance of the role of the United Nations, and of UNAMI in particular, in providing advice, support and assistance to the Iraqi people and the Government. Iraq is passing through an extremely sensitive and dangerous stage of its contemporary history, and today faces enormous challenges as it fights, on behalf of the world, against terrorist groups, in the form of the gangs of Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant. As a result of the actions of those terrorists, over 2 million members of Iraqi families have been displaced from their homes and forced to leave their businesses in the areas under the control of those terrorist groups. Iraq is in dire need of the assistance of UNAMI in providing for the logistical requirements to ensure a decent life for those displaced families.

General Assembly
Tenth emergency special session
Agenda item 5
Illegal Israeli actions in occupied East Jerusalem and the rest of the Occupied Palestinian Territory

Security Council
Seventieth year

Identical letters dated 9 July 2015 from the Permanent Observer of the State of Palestine to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General, the President of the General Assembly and the President of the Security Council

It is with deepest regret and sorrow that we recall the horror and devastation inflicted on the Palestinian people in the Gaza Strip last year at this time by Israel, the occupying Power. One year has passed since the onset of Israel's criminal war against Gaza, where the occupying forces killed and injured thousands of innocent Palestinian children, women and men; caused massive forced displacement; inflicted widespread and wanton destruction on homes, schools, hospitals and vital civilian infrastructure; and terrorized and traumatized the entire civilian population.

As witnessed by the world throughout July and August 2014, it was impossible in besieged Gaza to find safe refuge anywhere from this savage Israeli air, land and sea onslaught. Palestinian civilians were killed and injured in their homes, in hospitals, in playgrounds, on beaches, in schools run by the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA), where they believed they were protected by the United Nations flag, and in the streets of their neighbourhoods as they tried to escape the Israeli missiles, one-ton bombs and fire raining down upon them indiscriminately, shattering lives and families and reducing communities to rubble.

As we remember the staggering human toll of this 51-day Israeli military aggression, the third such major military aggression against the Palestinian people in six years and the deadliest since the start of the occupation in 1967, we recall the statement by the Commissioner-General of UNRWA, Pierre Krähenbühl, that "behind the figures lie multiple individual destinies now torn apart", a reality no number can translate:

- 2,251 Palestinians were killed, the majority civilians, among them 299 women and 551 children, from one-week-old babies to 17-year-olds, the majority under the age of 12 (a list of the children killed by Israel in 2014 in Occupied Palestine is attached to the present letter (see annex));

Please recycle

- 142 families had three or more of their family members killed in Israeli airstrikes and bombardments. A total of 89 entire families were killed;
- 11,231 Palestinians were injured, including 3,540 women and 3,436 children. The injuries were so severe, owing to the weaponry and wide-impact explosives used by the occupying forces, that an estimated 10 per cent of the civilians injured, among them 1,000 children, will suffer life-long disabilities;
- 1,500 children were orphaned, their mothers and fathers killed in the Israeli attacks;
- Among those killed were 23 health personnel, with a further 83 injured. 11 UNRWA staff members were killed;
- Civilians continue to be killed and injured by thousands of pieces of unexploded Israeli ordnance that remain scattered throughout Gaza;
- Nearly half a million children require psychosocial support to counter the trauma endured, and the collective trauma and emotional distress resulting from the loss of a family member, injury, multiple displacement and panic due to feelings of isolation and insecurity continue to permeate all segments of the population and all areas of life, constituting a public health crisis;
- At least half a million civilians, equivalent to 28 per cent of the population of Gaza, were forcibly displaced from their homes at the height of the aggression, the majority seeking refuge in 90 UNRWA schools that were opened as emergency shelters.
- More than 100,000 people, comprising 17,670 families and including 54,000 children, are still displaced, their homes destroyed or severely damaged by the Israeli assaults and uninhabitable, their life's possessions and family sanctuaries lost.

Compounding the widespread human insecurity and despair is the deprivation and destitution being endured by Palestinians owing to the humanitarian disaster deliberately inflicted by Israel via this war and its illegal eight-year blockade of Gaza. This humanitarian crisis has impacted every single aspect of life, with vastly negative socioeconomic implications, both short-term and long-term, that are depriving and disfiguring Palestinian society. As recognized unanimously by the international community, this unjust situation, with the consequent loss of hope, is unsustainable and highly volatile, requiring urgent remedy to stem further deterioration and avert the explosion of another cycle of violence.

Here we must recount the physical and economic toll of that war and blockade, recalling the Secretary-General's statement during his visit to Gaza in October 2014: "No amount of Security Council sessions, reports or briefings could have prepared me for what I witnessed today in Gaza", where he saw "mile after mile of wholesale destruction".

- 12,620 homes were totally destroyed by the Israeli occupying forces and 6,455 were severely damaged beyond habitation. More than 80,000 homes were damaged;
- One year later, not a single destroyed home has been rebuilt, owing to ongoing Israeli restrictions. Less than 1 per cent of the construction materials needed have entered Gaza. Donor funding for reconstruction also remains insufficient despite the generous pledges and commitments made at the Cairo Conference on Palestine, "Reconstructing Gaza", held on 12 October 2014;

- Over 100,000 people remain homeless, the majority Palestine refugees who have been forced to shelter with host families, in temporary housing or in the ruins of their homes, in many cases after months in crowded United Nations schools inadequate for family life;
- More than 100 United Nations facilities were damaged, including UNRWA schools;
- 75 hospitals and clinics were damaged, with one hospital entirely destroyed;
- 543 schools were damaged or destroyed, the highest recorded number in the world in 2014;
- Gaza's sole power plant was directly hit several times by Israeli strikes in July, resulting in rolling blackouts of 12-16 hours a day, which continue to this day;
- 63 water facilities were damaged and 23 were destroyed, exacerbating the water crisis in an area where 90 per cent of the water is unfit for human consumption;
- More than 33,000 metres of water and waste networks and 27 per cent of pumping stations were damaged;
- At least 500 economic and industrial facilities, constituting 60 per cent of Gaza's production capacity, were destroyed, directly and indirectly impacting more than 35,000 jobs, further compounding poverty, in addition to the livelihoods destroyed by the blockade and the 2008-2009 Israeli aggression;
- Unemployment in Gaza now stands at 43 per cent, the highest in the world, with youth unemployment at a shocking 60 per cent, deepening the despair of our young generation;
- Food insecurity is rampant, with 80 per cent of the population now dependent on aid for survival;
- The blockade has reduced Gaza's gross domestic product by 50 per cent, with exports and normal trade at a virtual standstill as Israel continues to obstruct the normal movement of persons and goods and continues to isolate Gaza from the West Bank and from the rest of the world.

One year on, the vast human and physical wounds remain unhealed in Gaza and hopes are rapidly fading for any relief from this appalling injustice and for restoration of the rights and dignity of our people. The inhumane Israeli blockade continues in collective punishment of the Palestinian people, Israel continues to obstruct reconstruction and recovery, and not a single Israeli official or soldier has been held accountable for these crimes. Clearly, at the moment that Israel launched its war last summer in Occupied Palestine, including East Jerusalem, it intentionally undertook to destroy the prospects for peace, to further assert and entrench its control of the Palestinian people, and to strip them of any hope for an end to this cruel occupation and for the realization of their inalienable rights and national aspirations.

The deliberate, systematic nature of these Israeli crimes, constituting grave breaches of international law and all principles of decency and morality, is unquestionable and must be considered in any effort to attain accountability. The far-reaching impact of these crimes and the multiple human rights being violated as a result must also be duly considered. The recent reports of the Human Rights Council's independent commission of inquiry established pursuant to Human Rights Council resolution S-21/1 and the United Nations Headquarters Board of Inquiry into certain incidents that occurred in the Gaza Strip between 8 July and 26 August 2014 provide ample and alarming evidence in this regard, as has the constant monitoring and documentation of this situation by UNRWA, the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs, the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the Office of the United Nations Special Coordinator for the Middle East Peace Process and other United Nations agencies and international organizations on the ground.

We stress that the matter of accountability is as urgent as addressing the humanitarian crisis, for without it Israel's impunity and depravity against the Palestinian people will surely be further emboldened, with disastrous impact. We thus appeal for immediate measures to uphold international law and to hold Israel accountable for its crimes and, in this regard, implore the International Criminal Court Prosecutor to continue the preliminary examination towards the opening of an official investigation into the crimes committed against the Palestinian people by Israel, the occupying Power, as a matter of urgency for justice and peace.

Left without the protections of international law and international justice, the lives of the Palestinian people will remain endangered by this illegal Israeli occupation and their future ever more uncertain as the situation on the ground further declines and destabilizes. The international community cannot remain an onlooker as the inhumanity of the Israeli occupation and subjugation of the Palestinian people continues, becoming more criminal, destructive and merciless with every passing year. Salvaging the prospects for peace and stability and, equally, salvaging the credibility of international law and the international system as a whole require urgent collective action to bring an end to this unjust, unlawful situation.

Upon the passage of one year since this devastating war, we reiterate our calls upon the international community, including the Security Council, to shoulder its responsibilities to address this grave crisis and the underlying root causes of this continuing conflict, which remains a threat to international peace and security. We call again for the full lifting of the Israeli blockade and for the sustained, normal movement of persons and goods into and out of Gaza, in accordance with international humanitarian law, to enable the desperately needed human, physical and economic recovery of this long-suffering area of Occupied Palestine. Further, during this sombre time of reflection, we remember the thousands of Palestinian victims of Israel's wars and crimes over the decades and reaffirm that the sole way to halt the suffering of the Palestinian people is by ending the Israeli occupation that began in 1967 and fulfilling the long-overdue inalienable rights of the Palestinian people, including those to self-determination, freedom and independence.

The present letter is in follow-up to our 546 letters regarding the ongoing crisis in the Occupied Palestinian Territory, including East Jerusalem, which constitutes the State of Palestine. These letters, dated from 29 September 2000 (A/55/432-S/2000/921) to 2 July 2015 (A/ES-10/682-S/2015/505), constitute a basic record of the crimes being committed against the Palestinian people by Israel, the occupying Power, for which it must be held accountable and the perpetrators be brought to justice.

I should be grateful if you would arrange to have the text of the present letter and its annex distributed as a document of the tenth emergency special session of the General Assembly, under agenda item 5, and of the Security Council.
